 Hi Michael, I am struggling a bit day to keep myself together. I have a major migraine, so many things to do with Diana. Can I talk to you later on today?

A Dance Partner is the other Partner Each can TRUST. Have that courage to tell a partner directly if a partner offends you, hurt you or disappoints you. A successful dance partnership requires loyalty standing behind each partner. Not Hating, Not backstabbing or whispers behind their back. TRuST is to lift up each other partner in a dance-partnership Will. ----- Forwarded message -----

Some people spend a lot of money on cars & trucks. I prefer to equate luxury vs Necessity. my x didem loves shops at Armani but uses $0.79 tissues in her bathroom..)

The progress of each impending issue is dependent on your ability to exercise precise accurate & definitive responses by order of each priority.

I'm yet to figure out which text I've been rude to you, not upset. Rude. If you found any please include in list of things your not done chatting with me about & kindly reschedule the formality for our communications especially by text as I can perceive a change in responses. I prefer 1-2 min of real time virtual communications rather than Apt to assume whether my timing is off after texting to you. Fear? Have a great rest of the day.
